

1. Training of Trainers (TOT)

A 15-day Training of Trainers took place at The Goat Trust Campus. The participant prospecting as community trainers were trained. Experienced faculty imparted theoretical concepts and skills required to develop and scale goat value chain across backward and forward linkages. Trainers were trained on Village and Pashu Sakhi selection criteria, forward linkages among live bodyweight marketing and backward linkage among feed, primary healthcare, management and breeding services. They were also sensitized importance of community institution and finance.